

All Rights Reserved

St. Michael's Holistic Natural Health Center reserves the right to deny service or sale of product to any person(s) for what ever reasons a staff member feels it is necessary

Such reasons may include, but not limited to, conflict with one's medical care, attitude or behavior of the client or potential client, multiple missed appointments, inconsistent participation, or any other reason a staff member feels it is warranted.

Due to our commitment to serving our current client's, any contact or inquiry will be answered as we receive them, and when time permits. At times, we get impatient callers who wants our staff to place them ahead of others. This is strictly prohibited. Any person who illustrates bad demeanor or disrespect to a staff member in person or through communications will be asked to leave the premises and/or not be considered for future services and sales. Those whom illustrate impatience or disrepect are not excellent candidates for holistic success. St. Michael's Holistic Natural Health Center will not consider service to any such person showing such demeanor.